Noppramart Thammateeradaycho, Counsel, Tilleke & Gibbins

Noppramart Thammateeradaycho is an experienced litigator with over 20 years' experience of trial and appellate advocacy at all levels of the Thai courts. She also has substantial experience with international litigation and arbitration gained from numerous cases in Singapore, Australia, Cambodia, Myanmar and Laos. She is particularly sought after for her experience in arbitration, and is known for her skilled navigation of both international rules (particularly UNCITRAL, SIAC, ICC, HKIAC and GAFTA rules) and domestic rules, including those of the Indonesian National Arbitration Institute (BANI), NCAC (Cambodia), Thai Arbitration Institute (TAI), and Thailand Arbitration Center (THAC). Her general practice covers various industries, including construction, insurance and reinsurance, telecommunication, and media and technology.

Julian Cohen, Arbitrator & Barrister, Resolution Chambers International

Julian has 30 years of specialist experience of heavyweight international, and domestic, disputes. Sums in dispute in his cases vary from small to in excess of USD 2 billion. In addition to acting as counsel, he also regularly sits as an arbitrator. Julian has over 10 years' experience in the MENA region, including 2 years based full time in Dubai, and an ongoing long-term commitment to the region. Julian has been involved in projects and disputes in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Qatar, Oman, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Benin, Sierra Leone and Mali.

Julian was called to the Bar in England & Wales in 1990. He was with Pinsent Masons' Construction Disputes practice in London and Hong Kong from 1993 to 2009. He left Pinsent Masons as a partner in 2009, and was called to the Bar in Hong Kong in 2010. Julian is particularly well known for his heavy weight practice in relation to the Construction and Engineering sectors, the Energy, Oil and Gas sectors and International and domestic arbitrations.

Olga Boltenko, Partner, Fangda Partners

Ms. Boltenko is an investment and trade lawyer with over ten years of experience in public international law and investor-State dispute resolution. She has acted as legal counsel in investor-state disputes under the auspices of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the ICSID, the SCC, the ICC, the LCIA, and as tribunal secretary in dozens of commercial disputes in a wide array of industries including oil and gas, mining, infrastructure, construction, telecommunications and pharmaceuticals, across Asia and beyond.

Ms. Boltenko teaches a master of laws degree in arbitration and ADR with a focus on Belt & Road investment law at The University of Hong Kong. She is also a professor of law at the Royal University of Law and Economics in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, where she teaches a course in investment law at the dual degree program with the Free University of Brussels. Ms. Boltenko is listed as an arbitrator on the panels of the HKIAC, SIAC, AIAC, CIETAC, AFSA (Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa), XAAC (Xi'an Arbitration Commission) and RSPP (Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs).

Arvin Lee, Partner, Wee Swee Teow LLP

Arvin Lee is a Partner of Wee Swee Teow LLP, a 109-year-old Singapore law firm. He is an Arbitrator of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board, the Beijing Arbitration Commission, the Chinese Arbitration Association (International), and an Adjudicator of the Financial Institutions Dispute Resolution Centre (Singapore).

He focuses on energy-related disputes (conventional and renewables). He has a track record of securing arbitral awards that have been enforced outside Singapore, such as in China of an SIAC award he successfully obtained for a Singapore-listed company for specific performance. Recent work includes acting as lead counsel in wind and solar disputes, and oil and gas hedging disputes, before the SIAC and the ICC; acting as co-lead counsel for a Pertamina subsidiary against a major European bank in relation to an LC dispute in excess of US$23m before the Singapore International Commercial Court; advising a third party funder in relation to a US$103m claim, and a private equity fund with an AUM in excess of US$500m on a 8-figure USD claim against a major international bank for various economic torts (including a novel one under Singapore law). He also regularly co-counsels with foreign lawyers on their Singapore-seated arbitrations, and also gets instructed by them to conduct Singapore High Court proceedings in relation to arbitral award setting aside proceedings. His varied publications include a piece in the Law Gazette published by the Law Society of Singapore, on how to maintain good and happy co-counsel relationships with foreign counsel.

He has experience acting in 3 arbitral award setting aside applications, the first (instructed by South Korean counsel) against a major US automotive parts manufacturer before the High Court of Singapore, the second against a Big 5 global commodities house before the General Division of the High Court of Singapore and then the Singapore Court of Appeal, and the last (instructed by Hong Kong counsel) against two PRC state-owned oil companies before the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC).

Arvin is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK) and the International Dispute Resolution Academy (HK). He holds a certificate in Hedging and Management of Energy Price Risk (2021) from the SMU Academy. He holds law degrees from Harvard (LL.M.) and the LSE (LL.B., Hons. 1st).

Monique Wan, Associate, Wee Swee Teow LLP

Monique Wan is a Disputes Associate focusing on energy-related litigation and arbitration in Wee Swee Teow LLP, a 109-year-old Singapore law firm.

She recently acted in 2 setting aside applications of institutional arbitration awards, for an oil and gas exploration and production company against a major PRC state-owned oil company with disputed sum in excess of US$35 million, and for an established Taiwan petrochemical trader against a major global oil company in appeal before the Singapore Court of Appeal.

Her current work includes acting for a Pertamina subsidiary against a major European bank in relation to an LC dispute in excess of US$23 million before the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC), for a senior fund executive in the oil sector regarding a claim on a guarantee in an SIAC arbitration, and for an MNC in a solar power construction dispute in ICC arbitration.

Monique has acted for clients in all levels of the Singapore Courts. For international arbitration, she has acted as counsel in SIAC and ICC arbitrations, and assisted the Sole Arbitrator in a Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC) arbitration in bilingual (English and Chinese) proceedings.

She holds a certificate in Hedging and Management of Energy Price Risk (2021) from the SMU Academy and a certificate in SIAC and Institutional Arbitration (2022) from the SMU Law Academy. She graduated with LL.B. (Hons.) from the University of Leeds, United Kingdom.

Yunkai Lin, Partner, RPC Premier Law

Specialising in complex and high-stakes cross-border litigation and arbitration, Yunkai Lin has considerable experience advising clients embroiled in shareholder disputes spanning across industry sectors such as Technology, Communications and Media; Retail, Food & Beverage, Entertainment & Sport; Healthcare, Oil and Gas, as well as Aviation.

An experienced dispute resolution lawyer, Yunkai frequently does his own advocacy in both litigation and arbitration matters. He has a very international practice having acted in disputes involving a wide range of jurisdictions including Singapore, Malaysia, Brunei, Thailand, China, Russia, South Korea, Bangladesh, India and the United States. He has acted for clients at all levels of the Singapore Courts as well as in arbitrations administered by the SIAC, ICC, KLRCA (now AIAC), LCIA and UNCITRAL Rules.

Yunkai is a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators and is on the Panel of Arbitrators for various arbitral institutions. He is also an accredited mediator with the Singapore Mediation Centre and has mediated disputes at the Supreme Court and State Courts of Singapore.

Leon Tay, Associate, Wee Swee Teow LLP

Leon Tay is a Disputes Associate focusing on energy-related disputes in Wee Swee Teow LLP, a 109-year-old Singapore law firm.

He has recently acted in 2 arbitral award setting aside applications, one against a Big 5 global commodities house before the General Division of the High Court of Singapore and the Singapore Court of Appeal, and another (instructed by Hong Kong counsel) against two PRC state-owned oil companies before the Singapore International Commercial Court (SIAC). He is hence very conversant with the current comparative jurisprudence, as well as strategies and tactics, in relation to setting aside and refusal of enforcement.

On the first set of proceedings, Leon argued in Reply in the High Court, against a well-respected Senior Counsel.

His other work includes acting for a Pertamina subsidiary against a major European bank in relation to an LC dispute in excess of US$23m before the SIAC, and being second chair on an international institutional arbitration for a senior fund executive in the oil sector in relation to a claim on a guarantee, and for an MNC in a solar power construction dispute in ICC arbitration.

He has also assisted in: (i) advising a third party funder in relation to a US$103m claim, (ii) advising a private equity fund with an AUM in excess of US$500m on a 8-figure USD claim against a major international bank for various economic torts (including a novel one under Singapore law); (iii) acting for an Australian upstream oil and gas company in its dispute against floating production services provider including an SIAC arbitration in relation to a US$7m parent company guarantee, and another SIAC arbitration (including preliminary Emergency Arbitration) in relation to a charterparty with amount in dispute (claims and counterclaims) in excess of US$10m.

Last year, Leon was a trainer in a client training webinar for PetroChina on various trading issues. He also holds a certificate in Hedging and Management of Energy Price Risk (2020) from the SMU Academy and a certificate in SIAC and Institutional Arbitration (2022) from the SMU Law Academy. He graduated with an LL.B. (Hons.) from the National University of Singapore.
