- The only work to focus solely on this specific area
- Provides a uniquely detailed and comprehensive reference on both oral and documentary evidence
- Practically focused with clear guidance on issues arising in drafting and defending letters of request and in conducting or advising at a hearing of a deposition under a letter of request
- Broad coverage addresses related jurisdictions including witness summonses in aid of arbitrations Bankers' Books Evidence Act and Order 71 (cross examination of judgment debtors)
- Comprehensive appendices include all relevant materials including CPR 34, The Hague Convention and the European Taking of Evidence Regulation plus guidance materials providing all you need in a single resource

Clearly structured to contain the law, procedure, and relevant source materials, this book provides an invaluable and single point of reference to bring clarity and detail to a previously obscure and under-resourced area of the law.
